Remarks from Mayor and Councilors

Mayor Hedenskog commented that Bob Kerr, past six-term Mayor for the City of Brookings, had passed away. He and his family made quite a legacy with the City.

Councilor Hodges commented about the many activities he has recently taken part in and the many more happening for the upcoming Azalea Festival weekend. He also mentioned Tim Rettke's upcoming retirement, National Public Works week and last week being National Police week, and thanked all in those professions.

Councilor Martin commented that he was advised not to speak on personnel issues and provided John Wooden quotes.

Councilor Schreiber would like City Council workshops scheduled on marketing promotions and to be updated and discuss the Urban Renewal Agency downtown plans for the future. Council agreed to workshops being scheduled.

Adjournment

Mayor Hedenskog moved and Council voted unanimously to adjourn the meeting at 7:57 PM.

Respectfully submitted:
